VOL. X111. NO. 37

LOUISA, LAWRENCE COUNTY, KENTUCKY, MAY 13, 1898

M. F. CONLEY, Publisher

Dewey's Victory.

Detailed Account of the Great Manila Battle.

Spanish fleg files in Mantla Bay to- sels. day. Not one Spanish warship The heat was intense. than two hundred Spaniards dead their trousers. dred wounded attest the accuracy of the American fire.

Spanish position at Cavite this of the engines. times slong the line, and scored over us. one of the most brilliant successes in modern warfare.

That our loss is trifling adds to the pleasure of victory without detracting from its value.

stubborn was the defense made by who were wounded suffered only alight fujuries.

to enter the bay at once.

crows at the guns. This was the was in his heart. order of the squadron, which was kept during the whole time of the begin the fight.

bayond Corregidor was a gun fired, the senior officers by one shell. log apparently exactly inside the the Spanish forts. bre battery, which fired no more.

MLEFT BY THEIR GUNS.

age way and the men for accuracy, their guns.

Here the Spaniards had a well- gings. to the port battery, and to seaward and myself.

mained under way during most of ships moved to the attack in line iy. A few nervous fellows could ahead, with a speed of eight knots, not help dodging, mechanically, us at a distance of five miles.

The Concord's guns bootned out a reply to these betterles with two bts. No more were fired, besending death and destruction into the erowded chy.

BRAVED SUBMARISE MINES.

powerful submarine mines were exploded about of the flagship. This was six minutes past 5 o'clock, The Spaniards evidently had misjudged our position. Immen-e columns of water were thrown high lute the air by these destroyers, but no harm was done to our ships. Mobile lay, where he had his first knowing how many mines there might be showd, he still kept on without fait-ting. No other mines advance for us. www.d that the Spaniards had only these two in place. THE ENGAGEMENT BEGINS.

Only a few minutes later the ly hit the battery in Manitin, but but, soon the gens got a better range, One shot struck the Baltimore and the shells began to strike near and passed clean through her, fortu-

Mastle, Philippine Islands, May us or burst close aboard from both I, vis Hong Kong, May 8 .- Not one the batteries and the Spanish ver-ships had been empty, except for Wildes on the bridge. Commodore Dewey attacked the the whir of blowers and the throb,

"REMEMBER THE MAINE."

The number of hits our vessels aross from the throats of 500 men at the guns.

time, running within 2,000 yards of at Cavite, swept the lower bay clear the Spanish vessels.

time, running within 2,000 yards of torpedoes, and established a Key West, May 6.—The Spanish vessels.

This watchword was caught up rung out for deflance and revenge. Commodore Dewey arrived off tated, but was evidently in every slackened. Manila bay last night and decided man's mind, and now that the moment had come to make adequate pls, the Baltimore, the Raleigh, staff Commander Lamberton, and lustily.

ing over the Raleigh and the Olym- ley," said the Commodore, and at ish ships and batteries at 11:16,ma- the American ships in Subig bay pia, followed by a second, which forty-one minutes past 5, at a disfell farther astern. The Raleigh, tance of 5,500 yards, the starboard practice.

the Concord and the Boston reeight-inch gun in the forward turspaniages begin to weaken.

Our squadron slowed down to Castilla and the Reina Christina my's ships, Commodore Dewey had timed our distance, while we had to guess swiftly but accurately, she comour arrival so that we were within theirs. Their ships and shore manded everything still flying the for Paymaster Martin, when it exfive miles of the city of Manila at guns were making things hot for Spanish flag.

commander off Cavite-pronounc time fuse shells, fragments of affont, except upon a battery on the ward room. Chaplain Frazier, who od Kavestay, with accent on the which would lash the water like coast. shrapnel or cut our hull and rig- The Spanish flagship and the equipped many yard celled Cavite One large shell that was coming flercely and the last vessel to be Arsonal, Admiral Montejo's flag straight at the Olympia's for- to be abandoned was the Don Antowas flying on the 3,500-ton protect- ward bridge fortunately fell with- nio De Ullos, which lurched over just in time to escape having it ed cruiser Reina Christina. The in less than 160 feet away. One and eank. protected cruiser Castilla, of 3,300 fragment cut the rigging exactly Then the Spanish flag on the ar-were the cruisers Don Juan De Another struck the bridge grat-Austria, Don Antonio De Utlos, ings in line with it. A third pass-Isla De Cuba, Isla De Luzon Qui- ed under Commodore Dewey and dents like these were plentiful.

MEN LAUGHED AT DANGER.

Our men naturally chafed at be-With the United States fing fly-from all our guns, but laughed at ing exposed without returning fire ing at all their mastheads, our danger and chatted good-humoredfirst passing in front of Manils, when shells would burst right over where the action was begun by them, or close aboard, or would three batteries mounting guns poworful enough to send a shell over with the peculiar spluttering roar made by a tumbling rifled projec-

Still the flagship steered for the center of the Spanish line, and, as not engage these hatteries without Olympia received most of the Spaniards' attention.

Owing to our deep draught, Commodore Dewey telt, constrained to As we neared Cavite two very change his course at a distance of 4,000 yards and run parallel to the Spanish column.

"Open with all guns," he said, and the ship brought her port to broadside bearing. The roar of all the flagship's five inch rapid-fire was followed by a deep diapason of her turret 8-inch-Commodors Dewey had faught ers. Soon our other vessels were with Farragut at New Orleans and oqually as hard at work, and we could see that some of our shells expluded, however, and it is two l'resected by their shore batteries and made safe from close attack by shallow water, the Spaniards were in a strong position. They put up a strong fight.

The Spanish ships were sailing shore futlery at Cavite Point sent backward and forward behind the over the flagship a shot that near the Castilla, and their fire was too nately hitting no one. Another ripped the upper main deck, disa-bled a six-inch gun, and exploded a box of of 3-pounder ammunition, wounding eight men.

The Olympia was struck abreast the gun in the ward room by a shell which burst outside, doing but little damage.

The signal halyards were cut out of Lieut. Brumley's hand on the after bridge.

A shell entered the Boston's port quarter and burst in Ensign Dodridges state room, starting a not fire, and fire was also caused by a Men shell which burst in the port ham-Scats except as our prize. More stripped off all clothing except mock netting. Both these fires were quickly put out. Another and five hundred to seven hun- As the Olympia drew nearer all shell passed through the Boston's was as silent on board as if the mainmast just in front of Captain along the Spanish lines, finding the day he gave his crews their first trouble. (Sunday) morning. He swept five Suddenly a shell burst directly chart was incorrect, Lieut. Calkins, rest, he had, in three days' time, Commodore that he believed he ed and destroyed nine batteries, From the boatswain's mate at could take the ship nearer the ene- blown up and destroyed all the dethe after five-inch gun came a my, with lead going to watch the fenses at the entrance to the bay,

At this range even 6-pounders complete blockade of the city of Manone of our men was killed, and only eight were wounded. Those who were according to the storms of the storms of the storms of the city of Manual only eight were wounded. Those who were according to the city of Manual only eight were wounded. Those who were according to the city of Manual only eight were wounded. Those who were according to the city of Manual only eight were somewhat the storms of the city of Manual only eight were somewhat the storms of the city of Manual only eight were somewhat the storms of the city of Manual only eight were somewhat the storms of the city of Manual only eight were somewhat the storms of the city of Manual only eight were somewhat the storms of the city of Manual only eight were somewhat the storms of the city of Manual only eight were somewhat the storms of the city of Manual only eight were somewhat the storms of the city of Manual only eight were somewhat the storms of the city of Manual only eight were somewhat the storms of the city of Manual only eight were somewhat the storms of the city of Manual only eight were somewhat the storms of the city of Manual only eight were somewhat the storms of the city of Manual only eight were somewhat the storms of the city of Manual only eight were somewhat the storms of the city of Manual only eight were somewhat the storms of the city of Manual only eight were somewhat the storms of the city of Manual only eight were somewhat the storms of the city of the city of Manual only eight were somewhat the storms of the city of the Three of the enemy's vessels were and the insurgents pressing around Its atterance seemed unpremedi-soon burning, and all of their fires the city.

On finishing this run Commo- twelve hundred Spanlards were dore Dewey decided to give the killed or wounded. With all its lights out the squad- reply to the murder of the Main e's men breakfast, as they had been at The estimated value of the Spanron steamed into Boca Grande with crew, every man shouted what the guns two hours with only one ish property destroyed or captured of that country. cup of coffee to sustain them. The is $6,000,000. action then ceased temporarily at 7:35 o'clock, the other ships passing loss is eight men wounded and $5, bustly engaged in sending to the the gallant flar-ship and cheminary (00) days the country of t first battle: The flagship Olym- Commodore Dewey, his chief of the gallant flag-ship and cheering 000 damage to the ships.

the Petrel, the Concord, the Boston. aide and myself, with Executive A REST FOR OVER THREE HOURS, failed to comply with Commodors It was just sight o'clock, a bright Officer Lieut, Rees and Navigator Our ships remained beyond range Dewey's demand for the use of the sign being given that the Spani- forward bridge. Capt. Gridley was action again went up. The Balti- to cut the cable on Monday. ards were aware of its approach. in the coming tower, as it was more had the place of honor in the Documents captured in the arse-Not ustil the flagship was a mile thought upsafe to risk losing all lead with the flagship following nal at Cavite show that the Span-Then one heavy shot want scream - "You may fire when ready, Grid- Baltimore began firing at the Span- cided to make their fight against soon off the coast of Porto Rico.

piled, the Concord's shells explod- ret roared forth a compliment to The Spaniards replied very slowly Commodore Dewey's promptness the Oregon and assist her in case ish fleet are still unknown. Sampand the Commodore signaled the in bringing over his fleet from Mirs of an attack. Presently similar guns from the Raleigh, the Concord, the Boston Baltimore and the Boston sent 250 and the Petrel to go into the inner pound shells burling toward the harbor and destroy all of the soc-

The Spaniards seemed encourag- rei was enabled to move within a ed to fire faster, knowing exactly thousand yards. Here, firing very

Other ships were also doing their We then sighted the spanish The piercing scream of shot was whole duty and soon not one red aquadron, Rear Admiral Montejo, varied often by the bursting of and yellow ensign was to be seen was assisting the Surgeon, had his head out of one of the 6-pounder Castilla had long been burning gun ports, when a shell struck the ship's side, less than a yard away. The Chaplain pulled his head in burst. tons, was moored ahead and astern over the heads of Lamberton, Rees senal staff was hauled down and at half past 12 o'clock a white flag was struck the Olympia within a radius gency as has arisen. The trip will vessel. Further supplies will probhoisted there. Signal was made to the Petrel to destroy all the vessels in the inner Dewey. ros, Marquia Del Onero and Gen. gouged a hole in the deck. Inci- harbor and Lieut. Hughes, with an armed boat's crew, set fire to the more passed between two groups of Don Juan de Austria, Marquis Duero, the Isle de Cuba and the Cur. men, so close to both that it is difficult to see how all escaped.

The large transport Manila and many tugboats and small craft fell prepared for our coming they would into our hands.

"Capture or destroy the Spanish they had not intended to make Astets Dec. 31, 1897, quadron," were Dewey's orders. Never were instructions more effectively carried out. Within seven hours after arriving on the scene I cannot draw distinctions, but ard and all other Li-done .- N. Y. Herald and Courier-

One of America's most famous physicians says: "Scrofula is external consumption." Scrofulous children are often beautiful children, but they lack nerve force, strong bones, stout muscles and power to resist disease. For delicate children there is no remedy of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophites of Lime and Soda. It fills out the skin by putting good flesh beneath it. It makes the cheeks red by making rich blood. It creates an appetite for food and gives the body power enough to digest it. Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emul-

Scott's Emulsion

THE WAR.

Story of the Past Week's Happen-Spectacles ings by the Day.

while trying to run the blockade most wonderful in the history of and enter Havana. She was first the world. The fact that not an warned not to enter Havana, but American life was lost is remarkdid not heed the warning. When able, and is the cause of much reit became evident that the vessel joicing in this country.

Intended to enter Havana she was May 7.—Porto Rico is expected A Few Novelties. After having made four runs work of it, and when on Wednes- eral vessels participated in the miral Sampson is there with or-

Serious international questions to do it. the Olympia's navigator, told the destroyed the Spanish fleet, silenc- are involved and may lead to a The officials at Washington are great deal of new trouble.

hoarse cry, "Remember the depth of water. The flagship start- cut the wires to prevent outside in-Maine!" "Remember the Maine" ed over the course for the fifth terference, occupied the navy yard is momentarily expected by the scouts patroling a line of several > and brought into this port by the Key West, May 7.-The U. S. United States gunboat Helena. Chattanooga, May 6,-A large the Spanish vessel Frasquiti. of defense, with food supplies short number of the troops stationed at New York, May 7 .- Serious riotthis place have begun to leave for ing is again going on in Madrid. Key West.

Niagara, May 6.-Polo de Barna Including the losses ashore, about

> Ever since he left the United ulace. Spahish government all the information he could obtain about the trol the insurgents and affairs are struments. ward the United States.

As Governor General Augusti

The shell that entered the Bos-

Aboard the Olympia the surgeons operating table was placed in the have killed many of our men, but Where every vessel in the Amer-ter those for the Commodore were

Spanish gunners saved us from a Cho

TORPEDO BOATS SUNK.

a Spanish torpedo boat was seen sneaking along shore ahead of the Olympia. Suddenly this torpedo boat turred and made a quick and by shots from the Olympia's second battery did the daring little boat turn back. She reached the beach just in time to save her crew plucky dash at the flagship.

given to the little gunboat Petrel.

ican fleet proved itself so efficient ted on a 4% stand-close aboard, after the action was Undivided surplus,on

The position taken by the Span- Henry B. Hyde, President.

over, the heartiest cheers heard af- a 4% standard ...

iards, coupled with their heavy Louis Fitzgerald, H A Harlbut. H G Marxuand.

an enormous advantage. Only our | Wm A Wheelock, good luck or the bad aim of the Marcellus Hartley,

During the first hour of the fight Hon share, their fight at Cavite.

terrible loss of life.

from drowning.

to this position.

he was not touched.

ural advantages for the defense he is to seize Porto Rico. An-bay prevented them from moving has been received from Commo- The reports of battles during the The more I recall the events of last Sunday's battle at Manila, the more miraculous it seems that no Manila affair.

has been received from the past two days were wholly unment giving the particulars of the Manila affair.

Sampson was off the coast of the coast of the particulars of the sampson was off the coast of the coast of ton's ward room was going straight that the Spanish loss of life aggre- Spanish fleet. gated 300. About 400 Spaniards The Spanish cruiser Isabel II ploded within five feet of him, yet were wounded. only six were wounded. His report said that Manila was Consul.

men to accomplish this result. The authorities will immediatebeen arranged at that point in an- leston. Three fragments of the shell ticipation of just such an emer- The City of Pekin is a very swift of fifteen feet from Commodore require nearly three weeks. The ably follow in a few days, distance is 6520 miles. The armor-piercing projectile that exploded the box of 3-pounder ammunilion on board the Balti-

Reserve on all existing policies, calcula-

Thus D Jordan.

Not until she had been twice hit MILLINERY

Far rebil !

master of the situation. The fear 2,000 miles from Porto Rico, o of a bambardment probably pre- about five days journey. THE EQUITABLE

Of the United States.

50,543,174,84 declined

Installment policies stated at their commuted values.

DIRECTORS.

F H YA'LES, Louisa, Ky., General Agent for Eastern Kertucky.

BARGAINS.

We here call your attention to many of the best values in millinery of the season. My line of hats contains everything that is new Local Agents Wanted.

Levi P Morton

Marsin Hughitt.

George J. Gould.

Sir W C Vanhorn

John J McConv.

Harnce Porter,

Two other Spanish torpedo boxts stylish and desirable. Prices are far below what you have been pay-made more cautious attempts to ing. I have fancy braid dress hats, in the Shepherdess and other leadome into the harbor to attack us, ing shapes, fancy braid hats made on frames in original designs, Sail-but one was immediately sunk by ors, plain and two toned, Turbans, Alpines, Childrens Hats, Baby Caps,

During the passage of the forts hat from my shop for one-half what you would have to pay other places.

at the entrance of Manila Bay on The reason why you can do this is because I paid cash for my goods Saturday night, Frank B. Randail, and Lought many more than I intended to, and must sell them them if Chief Engineer of the revenue cut-ter McCulluch, died suddenly from heat and prestration. He was buried at sea the next day.

And Longit many more than I intended to, and must sell them them if they go at cost. I cannot afford to keep them over. Come early and get choice of bargains. Yours without exageration, MRS. EMMA WEFB, Webbville, Ky.

fire and the other quickly abandon- etc. Ladies, bear in mind that for the next thirty days you can buy a

Key West, May 5, 2 p. m .- The vents a very strong attempt at hos-French Liner La Payette was cap- tilities on the part of the Spanish. tured by United States vessels Dewey's victory is one of the soon compelled to surrender, and to fall today, and the news will was brought into Key West. Sev- reach our shores tomorrow. Adders to capture it and he is the lad said to believe that the Spanish Key West, May 6, 2 p. m.-Up to fleet has not returned to Cadiz, but this hour no word has been re- is on its way to Cuban or Amerihundred miles of water and if the Key West, May 6,-The Spanish fleet should be sighted he will go steamer Oriento has been captured out to meet and destroy it.

cruiser Montgomery has captured

New York, May 10 .- A report be, the late Spanish Minister to the from Manila says that Admiral United States, has been ordered to Montejo, who was in command of get out of Canada by the officials the Spanish fleet destroyed by Dewey, has been killed by the por

Massacres reported outside movements of the United States | Key West, May 10,-Informaforces. The Canadian government tion has been received to the effect moonlight night. But the flagship Lieut. Calkins, who connect the of the enemy's guns until 10:50 cable to Hong Kong after Sunday's probably decided that to allow passed Corregidor Island without a ship most admirably, were on the o'clock, when the signal for close battle, the Commodore was obliged Barnabe to take shelter in their munition have been received at Hacountry was an unfriendly act to- vana in some mysterious manner. It is supposed that the French Washington, May 6 .- A naval steamer Lafayette carried in the and the other ships as before. The 1sh Navai Council of war had de- battle is expected to occur very supplies. The Lafayette is the liner which was captured by U.S. Admiral Sampson has sailed with vessels last week and released up-

Tampa, May 10.-Latest advices than are found in Manila Bay. other says he has gone to meet say the whereabouts of the Spaning the seas, but they have not yet Washington, May 7 .- A report discovered any Spanish vessels.

> He reports that the entire Span- Hayti when last heard from, yes ish squadron was destroyed and terday evening, waiting for the

made a brief halt at St. Thomas communicated with the Spanish not yet taken, on account of his St. Thomas is a Danish posse not having a sufficient number of sion 60 miles east of Porto Rico. Washington, May 10 .- The City of Pekin will leave San Francisco ly order men and all needed sup- Thursday with soldiers, ammuniplies to proceed from San Francis- tion and supplies for Admiral co across the Pacific to Manila. Dewey. The vessel will probably blown off, as the shell instantly Men and supplies have already be convoyed by the cruiser Char-

> The Oregon arrived at Bahis Commodore Dewey is evidently Brazil, Monday morning. This is

> > Outstanding Assu-

New Assurance, writ-

rance examined and

Jun A Stewart,

Daniel Lor

Wm A Tower, M. E. Ingalls, Thos. 8 Young,

A Van Bergen, John E Searles,

DR Moffat,

Joseph T. Low.

MRS, EMMA WEFB, Webbville, Ky.

ten in 1897,...........156,955,693.00

James W. Alexander, Vice Pres

August Belmont The mas T E kels

We can fit any ordinary case of defective vision with the best crystal lenses at one-half the prices charged by city dealers and peddiars. Our stock contains all prices from 25c up.

In our line of Nove to you will flud Base Balls, Bats, Rubber Bills, Marbles, Authors, Dominoes, Parchesl, Checker Boards, Playing Cards, Razor Strops, Mugs, Match Safes, Stamp Cases, Pocket Mirrors, Vases, Picture Frames, Tweezers, Too opters, Cuff Holle, Dolls, Toys, Albums, Gilding Prepara-

MUSICAL GOODS

Violins, Banjo's, Accordeons, Mandolins, Harps. Strings for all in-

POCKETBOOKS.

Full line of Men's pocketbooks and purses. Prices very low for quality.

WONDER!

Look over our line of blank Not an American was killed and east of Porto Rico yesterday, and books and tablets. and see if you can figure out how they can be manufactured at such low prices

> 100 page, board cover, blank books, size 8 1-2 x 6 3-4, good for ink use, 100 page indexed Ledgers, size 7 1-2 by 12, cloth bound, leather corners good Good Ink Tablet,

"Tick" Bargains. If the Spaulards had properly LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY

Handsome 8-day, large iron case, bronze fini-schock, fine movement, cathedral gong, catalogue price $11. Have $6.25 rance Dec. 31, 1897., $951,165,837.00 just one left at This is a bargain that cannot be duplicated hereafter. Black enameled clocks, bronze trimmings, 8-day, guarsateed time-keepers, worth $7.75, will close out at Also have clocks for $1.00, $1.25, $4.75 and $3.00. Ladies gold-filled watch with Standard movement...$10.00 Ladies gold-filled watch, warranted 25 years, Elgin 17.50 or Waltham movement.....

Daniel R Noves, Alanson Trask, Rrayton Ives, S D Ripley. S D Ripley.

The famous Rogers Bros. Knives and Forks, per s	et$5,00
Tea Spoons, per set	$1.75
Table Spoons, per set.	$3,50
Quadruple pists bread Trays worth $2.00 for	$L50
Bake Dish, (warranted to went '0 years,) with one	meled pau $2.98
Fountain Pens, Fitted with 14k go	id points $1.00
Solid Silver Thimbles, ea	ch, 20c
Solid Gold Rings, Childre	ens. 25c

CONLEY'S